DETAILED ACTION
REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim 7 is allowable over the prior art of record because the teachings of the references taken as a whole do not show or render obvious the combination set forth, including: (1) A sieve jigger for sorting solid material mixtures in a separating liquid bath according to density comprising: a rocker mounted to pivot about a pivoting axis in the liquid bath and to carry the solid material mixtures; a hydraulic cylinder with a single working pressure chamber pivotally connected to the; a displacement measuring device operatively connected to a piston of the hydraulic cylinder and to generate a measuring device operatively connected to a piston of the hydraulic cylinder and to generate a measuring signal; a displacement sensor arranged, to receive the measuring signal from the displacement measuring device and to generate a displacement signal; a governor arranged to receive the displacement signal from the displacement sensor and to generate a control signal; a motor driven hydraulic oil pump; a hydraulic oil supply and evacuation conduit connected to the single working pressure chamber of the hydraulic cylinder; a proportional control valve communicating with located-in the hydraulic oil supply and evacuation conduit and arranged to receive the control signal from the proportional control valve being configured to have a first lifting position in which the motor driven hydraulic oil pump is connected to the single working pressure chamber via the proportional control valve, a second free-fall position in which the single working pressure chamber is unrestrictedly connected to a hydraulic oil sump, and a third deceleration position in which the .single working pressure chamber is closed off from the hydraulic oil pump and reservoir; the displacement measuring device being operatively connected via the governor to the proportional control valve in order to control the upward movement and the downward movement of the rocker, in a first lifting phase, a second free-fall phase and a third deceleration phrase, including controlling at least one of a lifting displacement and a lifting frequency.

Claim 13 is allowable over the prior art of record because the teachings of the references taken as a whole do not show or render obvious the combination set forth, including: (1) a sieve jigger for sorting solid material mixtures in a separating liquid bath according to density, comprising: a rocker mounted to pivot about a horizontal pivoting axis located in the separating liquid bath, the rocker arranged to carry the solid material mixtures in the liquid bath; a hydraulic cylinder, a displacement measuring device, a displacement sensor, a governor arranged to receive the displacement signal from the displacement sensor and to generate a control signal; a motor driven hydraulic oil pump; a hydraulic oil supply and evacuation conduit connected to the single working pressure chamber; a proportional control valve located in the hydraulic oil supply and evacuation conduit and arranged to receive the control signal from the governor, the proportional control valve being configured to have a first lifting position in which the motor driven hydraulic oil pump is connected to the single working pressure chamber via the proportional control valve, a second free-fall position in which the single working pressure chamber is unrestrictedly connected to a hydraulic oil sump, and a third deceleration position in which the single working pressure chamber is closed off from the hydraulic oil pump and reservoir; and wherein, in a first lifting phase hydraulic oil is provided through the proportional control valve while it is in the first lifting position and the hydraulic oil supply and evacuation conduit to the single working pressure chamber to pivotally lift the rocker, in a second free-fall phase hydraulic oil is permitted to flow out of the single working pressure chamber through the hydraulic oil supply and evacuation conduit and proportional control valve in the second free-fall position essentially unrestricted, and in a third deceleration phase hydraulic oil is permitted to flow out of the single working pressure cylinder through the hydraulic oil supply and evacuation conduit and the proportional control valve in the deceleration position or free-fall position in accordance with the control signal from the governor.

Claim 18 is allowable over the prior art of record because the teachings of the references taken as a whole do not show or render obvious the combination set forth, including: (1) a sieve jigger for sorting solid material mixtures in a separating liquid bath according to density, comprising: a rocker mounted to pivot about a pivoting axis, the rocker arranged to carry the solid material mixtures in the liquid bath; a hydraulic cylinder having a piston and a single working pressure chamber; a displacement measuring device operatively connected to the piston and configured to generate a measuring signal; a displacement sensor arranged to receive the measuring signal from the displacement measuring device and to generate a displacement signal; a governor arranged to receive the displacement signal from the displacement sensor and to generate a control signal; a motor driven hydraulic oil pump; a hydraulic oil supply and evacuation conduit connected to the single working pressure chamber; a proportional control valve communicating with the hydraulic oil supply and evacuation conduit and arranged to receive the control signal from the governor, the proportional control valve being configured to have a first lifting position in which the motor driven hydraulic oil pump is connected to the single working pressure chamber via the proportional control valve, a second free-fall position in which the single working pressure chamber is unrestrictedly connected to a hydraulic oil sump, and a third deceleration position in which the single working pressure chamber is closed off from the hydraulic oil pump and reservoir; and wherein, in a first lifting phase hydraulic oil is provided through the proportional control valve while it is in the first lifting position and the hydraulic oil supply and evacuation conduit to the single working pressure chamber to pivotally lift the rocker, in a second free-fall phase hydraulic oil is permitted to flow out of the single working pressure chamber through the hydraulic oil supply and evacuation conduit and proportional control valve in the second free-fall position essentially unrestricted, and in a third deceleration phase hydraulic oil is permitted to flow out of the single working pressure cylinder through the hydraulic oil supply and evacuation conduit and the proportional control valve in the deceleration position or free-fall position in accordance with the control signal from the governor.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
